Cancelled Play: Frankencrayon

Imagine you are a stage manager or director of a play on opening night. Like in Frankencrayon, the play is cancelled last minute. Break the news to your cast that it has been cancelled, and fully explain why. How does the cast react and show their disappointment? What does the crew have to do to shut down the play? What is their reaction after all their hard work? How do you feel as a director/stage manager? How will you try to make it up to your cast/crew? Write at least six sentences.
