Learning From Your Mistakes

Making a mistake is not always a negative thing. At first, mistakes can seem embarrassing. But if you are creative like the girl in The Book of Mistakes, you can learn from your blunders and transform them into something unique and new. Is there a time when you made a mistake? How did it make you feel? How did you transform this mistake into a positive experience? What did you learn from this mistake? Please write at least four (2nd grade) or five sentences (3rd and 4th grade) for this prompt.

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________