Wolf in the Snow - What Would You Do?

In Wolf in the Snow, a girl makes the brave but potentially foolhardy decision to return a lost wolf pup to its family during a snowstorm. What would you do in a situation like this? If you were faced with helping a creature that might be dangerous, in an unsafe area like the woods, during a snowstorm, how would you act? Would you help the pup? How would you help it? Would you leave it there? Try to get help from someone else? Explain why you would make the choice you made. How would you feel? What might happen because of the choice you make? Write at least five sentences if you are in third or fourth grade, or four sentences if you are in second grade.
